

Only Trebor marries vibrant colors, bold shapes, great designs and dazzling gemstones to create a collection of jeweled luxury watches that are chic, yet understated. Distinctively modern looks make up this innovative collection of timepieces in a fashionable palette of colors. Trebor is the first contemporary collection designed by third generation jeweler, Robert Mouawad. While each Trebor line has its own identity, Swiss precision is its finest, unifying attribute.

Every Trebor collection varies from subdued and sophisticated to extravagant and brilliant. Trebor features men's watches that don't overdress the man and women's watches bound by a refined sense of elegance. A generous selection of tasteful designs has made Trebor a highly desired luxury watch brand with a cult-like following among the young, dynamic, chic and sporty.
